United Way Seeks Residents and Employees from throughout Waukesha County to Provide Input into Allocations Structure

WAUKESHA—United Way in Waukesha County and its Impact Strategies volunteers are currently involved in a planning process to review the structure used to allocate donor dollars throughout Waukesha County. A Listening Session will be held for the public to participate on Thursday morning, February 4, 7:30–8:30 a.m. at the United Way office, 1717 Paramount Dr, Waukesha. A series of three questions will be asked during the one-hour session. This will be the fourth of five Listening Sessions conducted by United Way. To allow all participants time to speak during the hour, attendance will be capped at 12 participants.

To register, contact United Way by Tuesday, February 2. Call (262) 547-8459 or email bonnie@unitedwaywaukesha.org.
